

Temperance Notes.

After a brief respite from the cares and responsibilities of office work and the enjoyment of a much needed season of rest, The Union Signal force have returned to their posts and the machinery of editorial and composing rooms, is once more in motion. The world "do move" although The Union Signal stand still for two weeks, and while our official organ has been vacating, many events of interest and importance have contributed to the making of history. Among them may be mentioned the passage of the tariff bill, (upon which Prosperity is supposed to be waiting) and the adjournment of Congress; the coal miner's strike, which has assumed such proportions and developed such features as to render it an occurrence of vast sociologic import; the discovery of gold in the Klondike region and the consequent breaking out of the epidemic known as the Alaska fever, which at present writing is steadily spreading. As to white ribbon work, that is always moving on. It is in vacation time that W. C. T. U. workers get in some of their most telling strokes as Chautauques and kindred summer assemblies abundantly testify.

Alaska is just now a fascinating topic of discussion among both the masses and the classes, and everything pertaining to it is read with interest. The rush of people to that new land of gold and of rigorous climate will make the work of its white-ribbon organizers all the more pressing, especially that of the department of miners.

Hence we are glad to record a most cheering activity in W. C. T. U. circles in that territory. Four local unions have just been organized—at Douglass Island, Juneau, Sitka, and Fort Wrangell, and the territorial union has been reorganized with its former president, Mrs. John Brady, wife of the present governor, again at the head.

Resolutions condemning skirt dancing by little girls at the Exposition, Oakland, Cal., were passed by the executive committee of the W. C. T. U. They were also endorsed by the non-partisan W. C. T. U. and the Humanitarian Society. As a result of this action, dancing was excluded from the program the remaining nights of the Exposition.

Col. C. J. Holt, says the bill in North Dakota to make illegal selling of liquor subject to fine, and not to imprisonment, was defeated by the W. C. T. U. The governor vetoed it because of the influential names signed to the many petitions which kept rolling in, and these petitions were circulated by the W. C. T. U. which is the only great well organized society fitted for such work; hence the honor he gives.

Mrs. Unruh has recently organized four unions and one Y. four of these in her own county. One of the unions is among the Grand Rondo Indians on the site of Phil. Sheridan's exploits in his young days. A very interesting meeting was held there, the chapel of the school being packed with dark faces. The old Catholic priest, near his eightieth year, attended and opened with prayer. Sister Margaret, formerly Mother Superior, led the singing with voice and organ. After a talk for the children, the simple story of the W. C. T. U. was told, and an appeal for cleaner lives made. Thirty members were enrolled for a W. C. T. U. officers elected and Oregon's second Indian union started in motion. It has since gained two members, nearly all being men. Mrs. Unruh has an ambition to organize at every agency in the state.

If the theory that the Bible speaks of only one wine, and that alcoholic, is true, then it is responsible for the following inevitable conclusions:

- 1st. That the Christ at the marriage in Cana, encouraged excess in drinking alcoholic intoxicants.
- 2nd. That He encouraged the custom of drinking alcoholic intoxicants at weddings and other social festivities, and consequently the disease of wine at weddings and socials, for fear of the alcohol, is a reflection on the wisdom and grace of the Christ.
- 3d. That in not teaching abstinence, and not refraining Himself, He had no consideration for the weaknesses of men, nor the strength of stimulated craving, nor the power of social temptations, making drunkards of millions, and consequently to refrain from the dangerous intoxicants, for the sake of the weak, is a reflection on His consideration for others.
- 4th. That the alcoholic intoxicants on His "the Lord's table" at the last supper, it was drunk by the cup-full, it is again a reflection on His example to only taste it at our communions, for fear of the alcohol.

It would seem infinitely safer and more reverent to believe that the Christ taught in the Bible, made and used and encouraged a better and a different kind of wine.

State W. C. T. U. Convention.

Great preparations are being made by the citizens of CARROLLTON to entertain the State W. C. T. U. Convention, which will meet in that city, Sept. 28 to Oct. 1. It is believed that the attendance will be larger than at any previous convention. A splendid program has already been arranged, and a grand treat is in store for all who attend.

The State Superintendents will have the day of the 28th—a new feature—and at night the members of the Convention will be given a "Welcome" by the citizens. Mrs. CLARA HOFFMAN will preside at this meeting.

The day sessions of the Convention will be made practically interesting. The evening of the 29th will be a "Y" night. Miss EVA SHONTZ, of Chicago, will be the principal speaker, but will be ably assisted by Mrs. NELLIE BURGER, Miss CARIE LEE CARTER and others.

Mrs. LOUISE S. ROUNDS, Pres't of the Illinois State W. C. T. U., will be the speaker for the 30th. She is one of the ablest of the many able speakers of our organization.

On the night of October 1st a "Diamond Contest" is promised. All the State workers will be present, beside many National Lecturers and Organizers. A larger number of visitors is also expected, as reduced rates have been secured on the railroads.

"There are Others."

Is an apt expression when applied to railroads. There is only one, however, which during the last half century has passed through the "crucible" of an exciting traveling public and come out "Free of dross." Ever alert to the best interests of its patrons, the management of the BALTIMORE & OHIO SOUTHWESTERN RAILWAY have unquestionably succeeded in establishing it as the leading and most deservedly POPULAR THROUGH ROUTE TO ALL PORTS EAST. For tickets via the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern Railway, apply to Ticket Agents of any railway in the West.

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advertiser," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

TROS. J. COOPER, Toledo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her. She also gained her mother through the Change of Life."
